

St. Petersburg 10/3. 1913

My dear Kothlen:

I suppose You returned at Your home from Your Tiresome tour at Holland.

I was very glad to read the criticisms about Your Concert at the Pleytharmonie in London and the brilliant receipt at La Haye. —

A pity, You could not give all Your power at the Philhar. many in account of Your illness. —

II

I had no answer from Nedbal; ^{either} ~~or~~ he had not received my letter, or he has forgotten me. — Now, if you intending to give some concerts at Berlin, Leipzig, Vienna, it is time to retain the Holes. —

You know, poor Mrs. Schindl is not more leaving at Loschwitz, a great loss for me; she promised to take care of my villa, to look after the man to take the responsibility

III

To make some changes in the building; now I must do it myself and please to make a little trip there during the Easter holidays to Loschwitz to prepare my summer installation. — What we have the pleasure of seeing you there?
My health, although a little cold, is not bad. — The pupils think with enthusiasm to return to Loschwitz. — When will you start for America?

IV

Best wishes for your and Mother's health and also hearty kisses.

L. Quer

Mrs. Stein sends her love.
